For over 20 years, the Journal of Holistic Nursing has been a pioneering force in advancing the science and practice of holistic nursing and health-care. The peer-reviewed journal promotes holism—a state of harmony among body, mind, emotions, and spirit—and nursing's function within that ever-changing environment.

Occasionally, holistic nurses work in traditional hospital settings. Holistic nurses often work in specialized settings because they use a variety of alternative techniques and methods of medical practice that are not considered typical for nursing. Additionally, holistic nurses use different equipment than traditional nurses.
